

A 501c3 with a 15 year history in the winterguard activity. Paradigm prides itself on creating an environment and philosophy that is family oriented and professional. Paradigm's staff is made up of men and women whose collective resume has multiple college degrees, certifications, and excel in their chosen fields as teachers, bankers, stylists, businessmen, and non profit specialists.

Future 2013 Home-Daytona Beach

Contact Information

386-243-4575

www.WinterGuard.com

www.Facebook.com/paradigmwg

perform@winterguard.com

Family

Friendship

Community

Excellence

Rich History

Professionalism

Helping your child choose the Independent Winterguard that is best for them.....

www.WinterGuard.com

Considerations for choosing the Winterguard that is the best fit for your family:

- Does the program have a formal non-profit status
- Is the budget available upon request
- Has the staff submitted to background screenings
- Is there a business plan available upon request
- Are parents and guests encouraged to view rehearsals
- Are staff resumes both professional and pageantry available upon request
- Is there an up to date website
- Does the organization reach out to the community

Why Choose Paradigm???

- 501c3 that adheres to best practices of a legitimate non-profit in terms of a comprehensive safety plan, strong business plan and strategic plan (all available upon request)
- All staff have submitted to and passed background screenings through the state of Florida
- We will not nickel and dime you! No performer will be asked to pay any fee that is not stated in the initial written contract
- Performers are encouraged to view the budget so they know how their money is spent

THE NUMBERS AND FACTS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.....

- 84% of all performers who marched between 2000 and 2007 went on to earn college degrees
- 3 Staff members have judged for WGI or DCI
- Multiple Staff members have served on the Board of Directors of the FFCC and WGI

